Kostyum arlekina.

The Harlequin's Costume. Historical thriller. Vagrius. Moskau 2001. 272 pages.

In 1871, the military attaché of the Austrian Emperor, von Ahrensberg, is murdered. Commissioner Putilin is assigned the investigation. The secret police take up the case as well, the assumption being that the murder was politically motivated. The suspicions of the responsible agent become increasingly wild: one after the other he suspects Russian, Polish and Italian revolutionaries and even Turkish spies. True to his principle "coincidence and passion are the real conspirators", the experienced commissioner seeks the answers in the murky waters of the diplomatic circus. The archetypal family man, who worships his stern wife and lives with both feet on the ground, struggles not only with criminals but also the secret police.

TITLE 2

Dom svidany.

The Encounter. Historical thriller. Vagrius. Moskau 2001. 272 Pages.

A historical thriller with Ivan Putilin, a genuine historical figure, as the main character. In this case the plot is purely fictional. Putilin investigates the murder of his neighbour and other persons. The Freemasons are suspected of complicity as a secretive medallion showing the sign of the zodiac, the Big Dipper, with an inscription is found at the scene of each crime. In this, as with his other novels, Putilin's wife and son play an active role. Putilin's profound knowledge of Greek Mythology is indispensable to the solving of the crime.
